DEFEATS MAJOR DAINGERFIELD IN THE TWO-YEAR-OLD STARE RACE. Away From Ogden, the 1 to 3 Choice - Utopian Captures the Money .- Taveta Proves a Surprise at Long Odds .- Three Favorites and a Second Pick Win.

Though the humidity took all the animation out of the crowd and the card was not an easy thing to solve, the usual attendance of 7,000 honored the racing at Brighton Beach resterday afternoon. Three favorites and a second choice were successful but they did not make up for the falling of two other first choices, Major Daingerfield in the Montauk Stakes and Ogden in the third event. Both of these horses were elected to carry a world of money and the smoke from the bonfire was suffocating.
The Montauk Stakes for two-year-olds at five and a half furlongs, which was the feature of the day, was the fourth event on the card. There was the hottest kind of a tip agent F. C. McLewee's Handspring colt Major Daingerfield, in spite of the fact that never had done anything noteworthy in the past. It was said that the colt's owner and a number of friends came to the track prepared to bet big money on him and such must have been the case, for the moment the layers showed twos the coin came into their bags in a flood and the price was chopped to 7 to 5, favorite. J. E. Madden's superb Fal-setto colt Flywheel, with Spencer up, and carrying top weight, 125 pounds, was a strong-ly backed second choice at 7 to 2. August Beimont's Leonid was supported at sixes, and the same odds were quoted against L. O. Appleby's speedy Ben Strome colt Highlander who was an added starter and was ridden by Landry. Julius Fleishmann's Alibert, with shaw up in the saddle, receded to tens and Dick Roche's Lombre was a 20 to 1 outsider. When they got to the post the horses began to twist and turn so that it was impose to secure a decent break. For twenty-five minutes the starter labored in vain with the trying situation and incidentally fined every jockey, Burns, Beauchamp, Shaw, Mounce, Spencer and Landry, $50 each for what seemed deliberate dilatory tactics.

When the flag fell the field was well under way. Major Daingerfield was the first to show in front, but in a few jumps Alibert and Highlander joined him and the three This order was maintained to the half-mile mark when Alibert began to tile and dropped back. Highlander had opened up a lead of a length and a half by this time and looked all over a winner as he was running with an easy stride and Landry had not as yet begun to ride him. Major Daingerfield had the place and Lombre was a good third. They came down the stretch in this order, Highander under a mile drive, and the favorite subjeted to the whip. Highlander won lander under a mile drive, and the favorite subjeted to the whip. Highlander won by three parts of a length in the fast time of 1:07 3-5, with Major Daingerfield two lengths better than Lombre. Fly wheel, never prominent and probably tired out by the delay at the post, was fourth. Leonid and alloer brought up the rear.

Schoom has there ween so much enthusiasm seen as that displayed over Smoke's defeat Ogden in the third race for four-year-olds and upward at one mile and an eighth. Ogden was a 1 to 3 favorite, while Smoke was at 13 to 5, and the other start it; Harry McCoun, was backed down from 100 to 1 to be the winner, ridden out by two lengths. Gold Fox took the place from St. Finnan by a similar space.

The first race for beaten three-year-olds at one mile and a sixteenth was not particularly encouraging from the talent's standpoint. The Golden Prince, though he was installed a 9 to 5 favorite, never showed among the leaders and finished in the ruck. Irene Lindsay, second choice, made the pace for the half and then gave way to Taveta, 8 to 1, who galloped home a winner by eight lengths in 1:49 t-5. Irene Lindsay was second, a neck in front of Balloon, third choice.

Eloim was an 8 to 5 favorite to capture the fifth race, a selling event for three-year-olds and upward at one mile and seventy yards. Andrew Miller's Animosity, who had won four straight races, was next in demand at 9 to 5. Royal Sterling was well supported at fives, and The Amazon had many followers at eights. There was a quiet tip out on M. Jordan's Fingal, who had O'Connor up evidently for a killing, and it came near taking place, too, for though Eloim led handsomely to the turn, Fingal and the wire where the favorite was triumphant by a nose in 1:44 1-5. Animosity was the fore The Amazon. The summaries:

land by the defeat of Yorkshire, the champion county, by Somerset. Yorkshire's team was thought to be invincible, and, in fact, has not lost a game in two years. The Somerset match which was played at Leed's was productive of a most extraordinary exhibition of batting by the winners, who, going in for their second innings with a deficit of 23s, amassed the enormous total of 63o. Three men surpassed the century, H. C. L. Palairet getting 173, F. A. Phillips 122 and Braunde 107.

The week in England was a notable one. W Gunn by an inning of 273 for Notts against Derbyshire made the highest score so far this season: Mold, the famous Lancashire bowler, was no-bailed for throwing eighteen times by Phillips in the match against Somersetshire, and Kumar Shri Kanjitsinhji scored 219 for Sussex against Essex. county, by Somerset. Brooklyn, Boston and Chicago were the inners in the National League yessterday. Their respective victims were Philadelphia, New York and Cincinnati. Although not playing, St. Louis passed the Quakers and went to second place. There was only one American League game, Philadelphia winning from Cleveland. The National League results and standing follow:

BOSTON, 5; NEW YORK, 4. Boston. July 30.—After a month's absen the Bostons began a home series, beating New York 5 to 4 in a slow game, thus strengthwas very effective up to the seventh inning. when Taylor's single was followed by Van Haltren's long homer. To save the game, Selee sent Willis to the rubber and he allowed the visitors but one more run. This tally was sufficient to tie the score at four. In the eighth Cooley singled and went to third on a sacrifice by Murphy, scoring on Long's hit. Capt. Long saved the game in the ninth by a grand catch off McBride's bat, doubling up Strang, who had started from third. The attendance was good, but when Long ordered Pittenger out of the game half of the third-base bleacherites objected vigorously. The Boston club to-day released Fred Crolius, the college outfielder, and it was whispered that Billy Hamilton will also walk the plank. The score:

BROOKLYN, 8; PHILADELPHIA, 3.

Clean, solid hits that split the air as they shot past opposing fielders, and a goodly quantity of them, let the Brooklyns win an easy victory over the Philadelphias at Washington Park yesterday afternoon. Orth was the Philadelphia pitcher whose delivery was maltreated by the Champions. Kitson had the upper hand of the visiting batsmen from the call of time. There would not have been a run off him had his support been perfect. The quartet of hefty batters that lead off for the Philadelphias—Thomas, Wolverton, Flick and Delehanty—drew blanks in their endeavors to annex a base hit. All the Quaker hitting was done by the rear section of the batting brigade. Delehanty ended the Philadelphias' half of the first inning by striking out, much to the enjoyment of the bleacherites. That is one of the penalities of greatness. Kelley started the Brooklyns around the bases with a line drive to left. Keeler's bunt moved him along and Daly sent him in with a single. In the third inning. Kitson drew four balls, Kelley filed out, Keeler plunked one of his own particular brand of singles just out of reach of several fielders and Sheckard was hit, filling the bases. Daly sent a fly to deep centre, Kitson racing home and Keeler and Sheckard each moving up before Thomas could get the ball back. Keeler and Sheckard tallied when Dahlen rapped the ball to centre.

McCreery scored in the sixth inning on a single, a steal and the catcher's wild throw and a fly. In the next inning the Champions touched off four hot singles in quick succession for three runs. While errors helped the Philadelphias to their runs sharp fielding cut them down several times. A pretty play was made in the hird inning Orth hit for two bases and Thomas walked Wolverton tried to sacrifice, but McGuire handled the ball quickly and laced it to third ahead of Orth. Files were Flick and Delehanty's best. Another swift play was made in the next inning. Barry singled and Daly threw Hallman's grounder wide BROOKLYN, 8; PHILADELPHIA, 3.

third ahead of Orth. Flies were Flick and Delehanty's best. Another swift play was made in the next inning. Barry singled and Daly threw Hallman's grounder wide to first. Then Dahlen's legs were a sieve for Cross's grounder, Barry racing home. Sheekard, however, made such a quick return to Irwin that Hallman was caught at third base. Orth batted Cross in with a single. Kelley's speedy fleiding shut off a run in the eighth. Jacklisch singled, Barry struck out, Hallman singled and Cross hit to Kitson, who fell down. Though still recumbent on the green Kitson tried to throw Cross out at first, the ball going wide and Jacklitech scoring. Kelley recovered the ball in an instant and hurled it over to third on a line, nipping Hallman neatly at Irwin's station. Keeler made a fine catch off Wolverton in the ninth. He would have distanced a deer the way he sprinted for the ball which was headed for deep right field. Willie's flying feet landed him under the ball just in time and he pulled it down. The score:

Ninety Entries for Hollywood Opening of Play at Atlantic Highlands.

Until the over-night mail is opened this morning Secretary O'Donohue will not have the full list of entries for the all-comers' lated, but so far he has ninety names recorded, which is at least forty more than is desirable on a nine-hole course. The best of the pro-fessional talent and many amateurs of high class are on the list, but there are also some entered in each class who have no right on their past records to go in for tournament overcrowding and to enable the good players to have a proper opportunity to make a score it might be well for the committee to ask some of those who are known to be out-classed to withdraw their names. As it is, the play will begin at 8 o'clock each morning, and to avoid being kept back or being thrown out altogether Secretary O'Donohue requests all who have entered to spend the night near the links. David Bell and Will Smith arrived from Chicago last night. Both are looking well and may be expected to make fine scores, Will Anderson, the open champion; George Low and W. H. In this country Travis has a reputation for consistent rather than very long driving, so that the following from the Scotch journal Golfing of July 18 reads rather oddly:

"Mr. Travis, the States amateur, takes a three-quarter swing with a good follow-through, which gives a tremendous run on the ball He is a very long driver, and at Troon was repeatedly in front of his opponents. He approaches and puts in orthodox fashion. Questioned as to what he thought of the links in this country, he laughingly said he thought he would give up playing in America after seeing the beautiful greens and surroundings here. The turf was a little gris ier here than with them. He intended playing over Prestwick links, as he understood that was the green par excellence in these parts—and he is right."

LAYS HIS HORSE UP A MEAT AND ANOTHER DRIVER SUBSTITUTED. McHenry Placed in Charge of Charley Me Who Beats His Field Quite Handily - Ebba Wins the 2:20 Trot in Straight Heats-Audubon

Boy's Good Race - Death of College Boy. COLUMBUS, July 30.-Three good races were disposed of to-day, the winners all making new records. The California driver, W. G. Durfee, was brought to book in shor order for his peculiar method of driving Charley Mo. He attempted the same taction in the 2:17 trot that distinguished his work at Windsor, Detroit and Cleveland with the same horse. While his culpability possibly from getting out of the 2:15 class, in which effort he had heretofore been successful, the officials took proper measures to protect the public in removing him for laying up the first heat. Despite his protest of good intentions, the horse was turned over to McHenry, who drove him to the front with the utmost case.

In the $5,000 purse for 2:20 pacers, Edgar Bronk's Star Pugh met his master in the clever four-year-old pacer Audubon Boy. who won his second race of the season and owered his record from 2:00%, made at Detroit, to 2:08%. The colt was a comparatively handy winner after going an easy first heat, which was taken by Capt. Brino in 2:07. Audubon Boy was bred and is owned by E. P. Weathers, Lexington, and was aired by J. J. Audubon—Flary, the dam of Royal R. Sheidon, 2:08, by Bourbon Wilkes. He got a two-year-old record of 2:24. Just before to-day's race his owner refused an offer of $10,000 for him. Capt. Brino, who entered the 2:10 list by winning the first heat, is a black stallion by Wildbrino—Columbins, by Red Chief. His former record was 2:19%, made last season. The gray mare Ebba was returned winner of the 2:30 trot in straight heats. Her driver drew each heat as fine as possible, to save marking her faster than required and was almost pinohed in the last one when the black mare Henrietta, under a drive, closed rapidly and was beaten by the shortest of noses only. Ebba is by Red Wilkes, out of the great brood mare Minnie Patchen, by Mambrino Patchen. She got a record of 2:20 last year.

The bay stallion College Boy, by Wildbrino—Heatrice, by Booker, who was unable to finish his race yesterday in the 2:14 pace, died last night from congestion brought on by the heat. He has paced miles this year around 2:10, and was owned by D. M. Clachlin of Chatham, Ont. Summaries:

BUPPALO, July 30 .- At the Lyceum Theatre last night before 2,500 persons Dan McLeod two straight falls. The times were 2s and 7 minutes, respectively. McLeod was a 5 to 3 favorite. It was a brilliant match, but Atherton was outclassed. McLeod gave his man a hard gruelling in the last part of the first bout, keeping Atherton on the bridge for fifteen minutes and twice slamming him to the floor without being able to break the bridge. He finally threw Atherton with a half Nelson and crotch lock. Atherton says McLeod weighed too much and wants another match at 15s pounds. McLeod says he will wrestle Jenkins for the championship as soon as Jenkins stops booking with fourth-raters.

Jimmy Handier expects to sail for England within two weeks. Handler has found a wealthy sportsman who is ready to match him against Jack O'arien of Philadelphia for $1,000 a side. Handler fights on the same style as O'Brien and the pair ought to put up a stirring battle.

Jim Jeffries Doubts the Wisdom of Fighting Ruhiln at Trisco.

It is quite evident that Jim Jeffries is not anxious to fight Gus Ruhlin at 'Frisco, judging from what he says in a letter to Marty McCue. The champion, who is now at 'Frisco writes: "I am in the best of health and thought I would let my Eastern friends know of this fact. I have just come from Catalina Island where I have spent a very enjoyable Island where I have spent a very enjoyable vacation. I make occasional trips to that place, which is a nice spot and very healthful. As to my proposed bout with Gus Ruhin I will say this much: I am not at all ancious to meet the 'Akron Giant' at 'Frisco because I don't think the clubs will give me the purse I want. I don't propose to fight for nothing. They must show me the money. You know it costs quite a sum to train and I don't like the idea of making this outlay unless I am assured that the battle is to come off. One thing is certain, however, I will not fight at San Francisco until the racing season opens. No fighters can draw any great amount there except during the season. I am anxious to fight Ruhlin, for I know I can beat him, but I am not so foolish to go ahead and train five hard weeks unless I see some coin in sight. I understand that the gaine will open in the East about October or November. Well, if this is a fact the mill may take place then.

1 am not oroke, nor am I in fancial need. That is the reason why I can be independent. I have some money and I am going to protect it. I care nothing about the theatrical business and will rest the remainder of my days, unless I get an opportunity to make a match where I can get the cash. I expect to see Billy Madden in a few days and I will tell him the same thing. Billy Delaney and the other boys are in good health and wish to be remembered. If you care to come to California, I think that you can get a match. vacation. I make occasional trips to that

MAHER-SHARKEY FIGHT OFF.

Ex-Sallor's Manager Says That Tom Is Matched Tom Sharkey is not going to meet Peter stead. At least this is what Barney Reich, Tom's manager, said to a reporter of THE SUN yesterday. Some time ago the management of the Louisville club offered to give Maher and Sharkey a $4,000 purse, but Sharkey thought his service was worth more and told the matchmaker of the Southern A. C. that he would not fight for less than $5,000, with a percentage of all over that sum taken in at the door. The club agreed to this, but yesterday Reich said to the Louisville matchmaker:

"Sharkey will not meet Maher at Louisville. I am sorry to inform you of this fact, but it cannot be helped. Sharkey has been matched to meet Jim Jeffries at San Francisco before the San Francisco A. C., on Sept. 9. He can make more money by meeting the champion than he can with Maher, you know."
